Package Brochures

April 2022

We provide seven inclusive funeral packages, each distinctive with a range of options and supplementary services available. We offer 'Simple' and 'Traditional' funeral services, from unattended direct cremations and burials to a full service at any chosen venue

TRADITIONAL SERVICE

For those looking for a traditional funeral service, the Traditional Package is the perfect baseline. Easily adaptable to make every funeral unique and personal for each family, this is inclusive of our supplementary services to ensure a bespoke send off for your loved one. Cremation and burial services provided.

Specific information on local burial grounds and crematoria, including disability access, the time slots and memorials, are available upon request.

What is included in the Traditional package?

The collection of the deceased from their place of death, 24 hours a day

Care of the deceased within our mortuary facilities, from collection into our care to the day of the funeral. Includes washing, dressing and presentation of the deceased, adhering to any special requests. Viewings in our Chapel of Rest may be arranged, with music if desired

Full funeral arrangements, talking through the options available for the funeral as well as all statutory documents. We may also complete arrangements over the phone, online through Zoom and via a free home visit

Choice of Coffin – From the simulated and veneered Bradnam Joinery range, with bronze or silver coloured handles. Raised lids with double mouldings are available. The Chiltern Oak is a widely popular choice for the Traditional

Floral Tributes – Full range available. We work closely with Daisy's Artisan Flowers of Dereham and Dutch Flower Parade of Watton. Up to £100 is inclusive in this package

Announcements – Newspaper announcement in a local or national publication, up to the value of £100 is inclusive. Full 'Much Loved' tribute site, including online donations

Donations – Collection and submission of donations made in memory of the deceased to a chosen organisation or charity. Collection boxes will be available at the service, online donations are optional ('Much Loved'/'Just Giving'), and cheques may be sent to us by post

The provision of a Hearse from our chapel of rest to the service(s), with one limousine for up to seven mourners to follow the hearse

Four or six pall bearers and service staff for assistance on the day of the funeral

The officiant – from a religious-led service to one led by a civil celebrant or humanist. The officiant will contact you directly to organise the service, including chosen music and content

The Service – we work very closely with each client to ensure the funeral of their loved one is personal and bespoke, with multiple service options available. You may choose to hold one service at the burial ground or crematorium, or to have a proceeding celebration of life at a chosen venue. We offer memory cards for mourners to fill which are returned to the family.

Cremations: Collection of cremated remains, with free delivery option. We provide a wide range of urns and scatter tubes; the Norfolk Oak casket is inclusive and the most popular. We also offer ashes interments, with or without an officiated service.

Burials: Provision of a temporary grave marker and bronze plaque – 18”/36” wooden cross or angled grave marker. We also arrange stonemasonry for memorial headstones. Grave tendering is inclusive for six months.

SIMPLE CREMATIONS PLUS

The Simple Cremations Plus package may be more appealing to those looking for an attended service, but still wishing for simplicity.

The Simple Cremation Plus package entails a 20-minute early morning service, held at 9.15am, at Breckland Crematorium. There are no limits on the number of mourners who may attend, and you are still permitted floral tributes, service sheets and music.

There is also the option to have a 9am service at Earlham and St Faith's Crematorium in Norwich, whereby mourners may spend some moments in the chapel in a service without an officiant.

What is included in the Simple Cremations Plus package?

The collection of the deceased from their place of death, 24 hours a day

Care of the deceased within our mortuary facilities, from collection into our care to the day of the funeral. Includes washing, dressing and presentation of the deceased, adhering to any special requests. Viewings in our Chapel of Rest may be arranged, with music if desired

Full funeral arrangements, talking through the options available for the funeral as well as all statutory documents. We may also complete arrangements over the phone, online through Zoom and via a free home visit

Choice of Coffin – The simulated veneered Bradnam Joinery range, with bronze-coloured handles

Floral Tributes – Full range available. We work closely with Daisy’s Artisan Flowers of Dereham and Dutch Flower Parade of Watton. Up to £70 is inclusive in this package

Announcements – Newspaper announcement in a local or national publication, up to the value of £75 is inclusive. Full ‘Much Loved’ tribute site, including online donations

Donations – Collection and submission of donations made in memory of the deceased to a chosen organisation or charity. Collection boxes will be available at the service, online donations are optional (‘Much Loved’/‘Just Giving’), and cheques may be sent to us by post

The provision of a Hearse from our chapel of rest to the service

Four or six pall bearers and service staff for assistance on the day of the funeral

The officiant – The service will be led by our Funeral Director. You may choose a professional officiant or minister if desired (+£110)

The Service – 9.15am early morning service lasting 20 minutes at Breckland Crematorium; 9am service of reflection at St Faith’s or Earlham (Norwich) Crematoria
